Western Association for Vitreoretinal Education

The Western Association for Vitreoretinal Education was founded in 1990 to provide a forum for discussion of topics related to disorders of the retina, macula, and vitreous. WAVE began a collaboration with the Ophthalmic Imaging Conference in 2011 to further promote this mission.

W.A.V.E. / O.I.C. 2027 will be held in the idyllic setting of Waimea, Hawaii.

Course Objectives:

W.A.V.E. / O.I.C. 2027 will offer attendees the opportunity to update their knowledge of:

- ◆ Age related macular degeneration
- ◆ Diabetic retinopathy
- ◆ Macular disease
- ◆ Retinal vascular occlusive disease
- ◆ Uveitis
- ◆ Instrumentation/Surgical techniques
- ◆ Pharmacology

Course Directors:

- ◆ Paul B. Griggs, MD, Program Chair
Seattle, Washington
- ◆ Gaurav K. Shah, MD, Co-Director
San Francisco, California
- ◆ Michael Altaweel, MD, Co-Director
Madison, Wisconsin

Journey into the heart of Hawai'i Island at Fairmont Orchid, a luxury oasis where the aloha spirit comes alive. Nestled along 32 oceanfront acres on the Big Island's majestic Kohala Coast, explore world-class beaches, underwater marine life in our private bay and lounge under palm trees by the spacious pool. With its exceptional resort amenities, including the open-air Spa Without Walls, oceanfront fine dining and unique Hawaiian cultural experiences, Fairmont Orchid is among the best luxury resorts in Hawai'i.

Reservations:

The Fairmont Orchid is offering rooms to conference participants at a special package price. To secure this rate, reservations must be made by calling (800) 845-9905 or (808) 885-2000. Please inform the hotel that you will be attending the W.A.V.E. / O.I.C. Conference. Because demand for this resort area is high in June/July, early reservations are encouraged. Reservations made after April 1, 2027 may be on a space available basis only.

Additional resort information may be found at www.fairmont.com.
